Poland - A symphony of light and colours in Warsaw

The National Temple of Divine Providence in Warsaw is considered one of the most important Roman Catholic building of the last three centuries in Poland. The history of the Temple of Divine Providence stretches back over 200 years and is associated with Poland's first Constitution released on May, 3 1791. Two days after approving the Constitution, members of parliament adopted a resolution approving...

Italy - Lights on the Amalfi Coast

Located on a rocky spur, the church of Santa Maria del Bando offers a very striking view of the village of Atrani, its white clustered houses, the clear water sea of the Amalfi coast and the steep cliffs below. The church was probably built in the tenth century, but the first official documents about the structure date back to the twelfth century. It was built on the top of mount Aureo, where public...
