Ireland - Kilmainham Gaol under a new light

Ireland is a country known for its rebel spirit, and the marks of rebellion are visible throughout its capital city, Dublin. While monuments to Irish insurgence and freedom dot the city, there is one place where the significance of the many uprisings strikes more deeply than any other: Kilmainham Gaol. Opened in 1796, Kilmainham Gaol experienced some of the most heroic and tragic events...
